

Many of the Masjid operational expenses are not going away during this lockdown period.

The new Masjid dome and minaret have to be completed, a perimeter fence must still be constructed, the kitchen has to be finished, and loans to be repaid. We need your generosity during this holy month of Ramadan. Donate securely online via PayPal, or download the Mohd app from Google Playstore or iTunes and pay from the convenience of your mobile phone or tablet. Visit the Masjid's website for details.

Due to Corona, the Masjid may remain closed for a part or all of Ramadan. Check website daily. Sadaqat-ul-Fitr is $8 per family member to be distributed before Salatul-Eid.

Ramadan Mubarak! According to the Fiqh Council of North America, Ramadan 1441 starts on Friday, 4/24, and Eid Al-Fitr on Sunday, May 24. However, follow us on Twitter at @MasjidAM, Facebook; or visit our website starting Thursday after Maghrib for an official announcement based on moonsighting. The Covid-19 lockdown has left many poor Muslims in dire need of food and shelter. Pay your Zakat and Sadaqa online or send checks to Masjid Al-Momineen, PO Box 1289, Clarkston, Ga. 30021. The Masjid Zakat committee is dedicated to distributing your Zakat money to the needy Muslims and refugee families in and around Clarkston expeditiously. Let us pray for the entire Ummah and mankind during these difficult times. Let us pray that our acts of worship and sincere intentions are accepted and richly rewarded.
